

Respect

There is a message so old and so true for us all.
And we would live in peace if we just answered this call.
It's very simple: Treat others exactly the same as you would like to be treated by them.

Respect means restraint, politeness and modesty.
Yes, mankind will live with respect.
If presidents learned a bit more from us kids,
perhaps they would see what's respect.

There are some folks who wear nothing but designer clothes, looking down on some kids who can't afford to wear those.
Feeling cool they bully others thinking this is correct.
But the truth – yes, the truth is: They have no respect!

Just a few days ago on his way off to school little Tim was in the bus and what he did was so cool.
When an old man got on and found no place to rest his feet,
- Tim showed respect, got up and offered him his seat.